

Al Rashid Mall

Located on the Dhahran-Al Khobar highway, the Al Rashid Mall is a favorite landmark among all families in the Eastern Province of Saudi Arabia. This mall is not only famous for housing large number of shops but also for its unique architecture which is based on a traditional Arab fort. It is also a popular place for most of the local youngsters, as they hang out here at night.

Shurjoint was specified for the Fire Protection and District Cooling System with pipe size up to 28". The grooved system's unique ability to accommodate the tight spaces and seismic movement made it the natural choice for this challenging project.
